A number of exchanges are discussing the "diphtheria plant." We suggest that it is generally found in the cometeries.

Wisconsin. Guiteau says that he is crazy, but insists that he is able to manage his own case. He evidently has not a very high ides of the law. Parnell has asked to be put at work in the carpenter's shop, like any other prisoner, but just now it must take most of his time to read the cablegrams of sympathy sent him. John Kelly in a recent speech to Tammany said: "Sometimes it is very difficult for people to get at the truth." It is evident he has not studied the history of the Democratic party in vain.

A gang of Chicago roughs tried to derail a street car night before last, and rob the passengers. They were only practicing, preparatory to moving to Missouri, to engage in railway business on a larger trouble.

Under a Republican administration Wisconsin's wallet at the close of this fiscal year contains $300,000, and about 300,000 acres of land have been gained from the Government. Under this view of things the people want no change, except the few Democrats who are always after change, whether it belongs to them

Prof. Klein, of Kentucky, proposes to have his claim in early on the discovery of the next comet. He speaks in fact for be next eleven. He says be has discovered a double one with nine small ones around it. There is nothing like being in time, and whoever discovers a comet now may rest assured that Prof. Klein will claim it as one of his eleven.

There is now in the sub-treasury at New York $1,890,000 in unclaimed postoffice money orders, the accumulation of seventeen years for the entire United States. It plainly shows that there are mistakes and neglects on the part of those not in public office, and it is often those very ones who grumble most when an official is the one at fault.

Judge Davis in appointing Republi cans to fill the vacancies in the Senate committees has shown that the confidence felt by the Republicans was not misplaced. His action in voting with the Republicans before his election and his action since, show that he does not deem it just that the Democrats should win any longed to Republicans, caused by the resignation of two and the death of another, and he justly named those of the same pektical bith to fill them.

The fact that First Assistant Postmaster Tyner has been asked to resign is an indication that President Arthur is determined that there shall be no halfheartedness about the star-route prosecutions. It is claimed that while Tyner was not directly and financially interested in the star-routes, yet he became conversant with the france by a western trip two years ago, at which time he made out a report, which he has since kept as a club with which to make those criminated do his will. His offense is alleged to lie in keeping the facts quiet and not promptly informing his superiors. Postmaster James saw in Tyner an obstacle in the way of properly presecuting the guilty ones, and has insisted his removal. It appears from the fact that Tyner is requested to resign, that James has under this consideration consented to remain at the post long enough to finish the work he has so boldly begun. It is equally evident that he will remain in the cabinet no longer than to accomplish that, as he has accepthave done, or left undone, it is gratifying to all Republicans to see that the administration is determined to hunt out fraud and punish it, without regard to who fall, and that it is actuated by a sense of right and justice, which is above any ties of friendship or of party.

YORKTOWN.

The Nation's Nativity Is Being Colobrated at Yorktown with Pomp and Ceremony.

YORKTOWN, Va., Oct. 18.—There was a slight shower this morning, and the weather is cooler.

Eight boats arrived between midnight and 8 o'clock this morning, bringing many troops and civilians. Among the former were detachments from Delaware, Michigan, Virginia, and New Hampshire.

At 10 o'clock salutes were fired from General Hancock's camp. The steamer Excelsior, with the Yorktown Congressional Commission on board, arrived this morning, and they were received with salutes from General Hancock's camp and the war vessels in the harbor. Shortly after the Dispatch and Tallipoosa hove in sight, and were saluted by the camp and gunboats. President Arthur left the Dispatch at 11:30 and proceeded to Latayette Hall, where he will be received by the Governor of Virginia.

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., Oct. 18 .-- The steamer Catskill, with Secretary Blaine and the French and German guests, arrived at Hampton Roads this morning from Washington. The Freuch Minister and guests were transferred to the frigate Magicieane, which got under way, and, accompanied by her consort, the Dumont Dorville, sailed for York-

Salutes were fired from the fort in honor of the arrival of the distinguished visitors. The Catskill left for Yorktown at 9 o'clock.

The distinguished guests including the descendants of Lafayette and Steuben, Governors of States, and Congressmen, began to arrive at Lafayette Hall about 11 o'clock. General Hancock arrived at noon and paid his respects to the Governor of Virginia. The two passed some time in pleasant clust, and passed some time in pleasant chat, and then many persons were presented to the General and he warmly shook each

The President shook rands with the distinguished persons present. The line was then formed and the party marched to the grand stand, where the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the monughastly robbery. The vacant places be-

The Masonic procession looked imposing, with the tylers with drawn swords, the stewards bearing the white rods, master masons, deacons, secretaries and treasurers, six abreast, followed by the visiting brethren and grand commun leries of Virginia, and other States.

President Arthur was loudly cheered by the crowd during the march to the grand stand. When all had taken the place assigned them the ceremonies were opened with prayer by the Rev. Robert Nelson, grandson of Governor Nelson, who commanded the Virginia militia at Yorktown. He thanked God for 100 years of blessing youchsafed this country, for Washington, for our allies and for our victory, and prayed the people of the laud might not pride themselves too much upon their achievements and pros pority, but that they might thank and trust the Lord. He prayed for peace among all nations and for fraternal concord among the sections of our common country. He prayed for the rulers of the laud, that they might be pure, and for the people that they might learn to love and serve the Lord.

At the conclusion of the prayer the band played the "Star Spangled Banner" with artillery accompaniment.

Governor Holiday, of Virginia, thea delivered the address of welcome. The Governor has a fine presence, clear voice, and carnest manner, and was facquently applicated, especially by the distinguished gentlemen who sat around him. United States Senator J. W. Johnston of Virginia, chairman of the congressional commission, then made a few appropriate remarks, in which he sketched the history of the surrender, read from original documents an account of the action of Congress at the time, exhibited the sword voted to the messenger who bere the news of the surrender, and alluded to the fact that W. W. Henry, grandson of Patrick Henry, and the Rev. Dr. Nelson, grandson of Governor Nelson, were on the stand.

In conclusion, he said that the column, now to be erected, was to commemorate not only the victory of the colonies, but the part taken in that victory by France. Recognition and acknowledgment of aid given by France to this country in the hour of its need was a solemn duty left by the continental congress to its suc-cessors, and now, after the larse of 100 years, the Congress of thirty-eight States and 50,000,000 of people, the congress of the Nation which stretches from the Atrepresentatives of the French nation, here at the invitation of this government. Again French soldiers tread American soil, and French yessels again ride York

The model of the monument to be crected is here before us. Thirteen female figures representing the thirteen colonies seem to support on their shoulders a col-umn inscribed with the names of thirty-eight States, and crowned with a figure of Liberty. This embodies the idea that of Liberty. This embodies the idea that from the thirteen colonies grew thirty-eight States, and sprung the truest and most thorough and genuine liberty ever enjoyed by any people. On four sides of the base, and carrying out the original design of the Continental Congress, are emblems of the alliance between the United States and his Most Christian Majesty, and a succinct narrative of the surrender of Earl Cornwallis; and now, as an appropriate opening of our celebra-tion, the corner-stone of the monument will be laid with all the grand and solemu ceremonies besitting so great an occasion by the order of Ancient, Free, and immself was a chief member.

The workmen, under the direction of the Grand Master of Virginia, then laid the corner-stone according to the ancient and honorable rite. W. the Rev. Marshall B. Smith, June Judge B. R. Welford, of Virginia, the Masonic orator, then made an eloquent address, at the conclusion of which the ceremonies ended. Immediately afterward, President Arthur and party left for the steamer Dispatch.

The steamer bearing the French commission, Secretary Blaine, and others was in the stream some two hours and half before they were discovered from shore and while the corner-stone was being laid. Secretary Blaine came to the government dock and sent word to the authorities in charge; but it was too late, as the ceremonies were completed, and the party returned to the Tallapoosa.

The scene on the river front was an in-spiring one. The men-of-war, steamers, tugs, yachts, and sailing vessels were all decked with flags and streamers; the salutes to arriving dignitaries, the gay uniforms of the military, Knights Templar, etc.; the music of the bands and drums and fifes as the troops landed and marghed to their agentless and the marched to their quarters, and the crowds of people of all nationalities and conditions, who gathered on the batteries or wandered over the grounds—all com-bined to make the scene one of deep in-

There were the usual drills at the camps to-day, and they were witnessed by thou-sands of spectators.

On the Franklin, the lights were so arranged as to show the outlines of the ship and rigging with magnificent effect. There were also other designs, one being a schooner apparently under sail. From a yacht in the harbor went forth a constant stream of rockets, etc.

MILWAURES, October 19.—The night telegraphers of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway company were startled at 1 o'clock this morning by a dispatch from Pewaukee, by Conductor Robert McKittrick, of passenger train No. 3, westward bound on the L. ## FRENCH PIQUE.

Youktows, Va., Oct. 18-The French guests are mortally offended. The troub le has been brewing for days, and even Secretary Blaine was not diplomat enough to postpone the circus. This afternoon the descendants of Von Steuben were received in New York, with great ceremony, by the German socie-ties, and have been the recipients of marked attention from their countrymen. Ever since their landing, the Frenchmen have received no such attention comparatively. They have refused to understand that the American government was not responsible for what the German societies might and have nursed their wrath from the the Nation which stretches from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is fulfilling that displayed from the fleet. This the duty. Three millions of people and thirteen colonies accomplished the sept work, and new 50,000,000 of people and thirty-eight States are celebrating it. Participating in this celebration are the representatives of the French nation, here all matter. They would resent the insult for France, and they pulled up bag and to France, and they pulled up bag and baggage and left the Catskill, where they were the guests of the government in charge of Secretary Blaine and went off in a huff to their own man of war and refuse so far to be propitiated.

Carcago, Oct. 18.—Since the balloon which left Chicago on Thursday night was seen at Melrose, Wis., about 8 o'clock the following morning; there has been no word or sign of it, so far, at least, as this city is concerned. Temperance meetings have been held from time to time, and with good effect, at the Soldiers' Home in Milwankee, Accepted Masons, of which Washington | but latterly, singe an offert has been issue, the commandant has refused to permit any such meetings, as the rules of the institution do not allow political meetings there. This is only one out of many justances in which the forcing of such an issue puts a stop to real reformatory work, and awakens an opposition which all true temperance men must regret. The few extremists who are thus forcing this issue should re-read the old fable of the dog dropping his meat to grasp its shadow.

correspondent relates that the linsband of a poor German woman who had suffered a relapse in her illness through the excitement caused her by the passage of President Garfield's funeral cortege under the window, going to view the remains at the Capitol, brought back to his wife a bud that he caught as it loosened and fell from Queen Victoria's lovely wreath on the casket. It bloomed by her bedside, disclosing a dove in the centre, and the poor woman, calling it the Christ flower sent from the dead President to heal her, began to mend immediately. It was an orchid, the Espirito Santo, and as they are usu-ally sold at the price of twenty dollars a blossom, it gives one an idea of the royal prodigality of the wreath.

Great interest was manifested by all on board at this strange meeting with so novel a means of marine navigation.

Nor did the aid of the glass throw any light upon the subject. glass throw any light upon the subject. The sea was by no means smooth; indeed, when the strange machine was first discovered it was visible only when it rose to the top of each succeeding wave. We continued to watch with interest the progress of this animated speck upon We continued to watch with interest the progress of this animated speck upon the ocean until it faded entirely from view in the distance." The solution of this mystery is that Major Uren made his first visit to the sheals with the marine bicycle on Saturday afternoon, passing the steamer Appledore both going and returning. He left the mouth of the harbor at 2:45 o'clock, and argoing and returning. He left the mouth

Quite a number of gentleman at the Appledore obtained permission and tried the machine, manifesting much pleasure with it and its novel construction. The Major left the Oceanic for this city at 5:15, but, owing to a brisk northeaster, which kicked up a heavy sea for a craft so small, did not arrive at the aquarium until 7 o'clock.—Portsmouth (N. "There is no place on the Continent that will compare with St. Andrews for trout, nor is there any man who can take them as I do." "How many did you catch?" asked her little serene highness.

And the Jester stood up in the presence of the court and laid his hand upon his heart and said, with solemn enthu-

"Six. Six large ones. The biggest of the seven will turn the scale at four pounds. Two I took with flies, five with worms, and the big six-pounder I sawdown by the big red rock, and I plunged in, run him down and kicked him to death. Then I had two big ones, bigger than any I have here, clear out of the water, and they got away. After I caught about a dozen on the east side of the lake, I went over to the dead tree by our old eamp, and the first east I made hooked a pine log as big as a trout. You never saw anything so gamey. Had to let it go. Then, just before we came away, I cast for a big follow and I got him. He stood straight fellow, and I got him. He stood straight up in the water and fought for the belt. He broke my casting-line, got away with the hook, stuck his head out of the water and swore at me, and sassed Gardner, and threw stones at us, and said he could swim away with any man that ever tangled a trout line around a first ever tangled a trout line around a first ree, and at last swam out to the island, climbed up on a big gray rock and worked the hook out of his jaw, looked at it, snorted at it and held it off at arm's length with his fin, and said if he couldn't gnaw a better fly than that out of a yellow blanket, in the dark, he'd never help another man to an aftermoon's sport. Then he called half a man at the other end of the line into the lake and drown him.' Saying which he stuck the hook into a log and went below, and I just gathered up my twen-ty-two trouts and came home. That's the kind of a lone fisherman I am."

"There is nothing," Gardner re-marked, "that will so thoroughly initiate a man into a full and active membership of the order of trout liars as the simple fact of the eatching half a dozen trout himself. He has then the grip, pass-word, sign, countersign, parole, regalia, and full set of third-degree jewelry, and is entitled to a front seat in the water

It is very remarkable-indeed, it is a question that the student of moral coonomy may ponder over a very long time without arriving at any very definite conclusion—why the best of men can not tell the truth about trout. And if they can, why they do not .- Hawkeye.

A Baptist Minister's Experience. 1 am a Baptist Minister, and before I even thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Ederc-tric Oil cared me." I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphthoria, and "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them," and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the tent to the tent of the cure of the cur most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head by suiffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I don't care how offen-TEXELLELE LOSS OF LIFE.

BRIEFLETS.

 Robbins is at home again. -The Concordia society had a pleasant ocial hop last evening. Jack Frost took many a nip last night, but wasn't run in. -Remenyi draws the bow and draws the crowd in Beloit to-night.

-The city council will open their annual season of lamp-post talk to-night. -M. C. Smith's pony advertising team attracted general attention on the streets

-The funeral services of Miss Hopper were held this afternoon at the First Methodist church.

-It seems like old times. The notice of "no mail this morning" greeted the eyes of early visitors to the postoffice.

-No one should miss the opportunity of seeing the Robbins and Colvin show in all its immensity. To-night closes he scason.

-This evening the Janesville Horticultural Society will hold its annual meeting at Heimstreet's drug store, at which time and place the reports of officars will be presented, and the annual election held. -The veterans are to meet again at the council chamber Friday night to take further steps in effecting an organization of a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. All old soldiers should bear date and place in mind.

-Several private reading clubs have been formed here this winter, the clubs numbering about ten members each, and the reading consisting of the leading re. views and magazines, which are taken in common, and then passed around. -W. A. Edwards, representing Bartley Campbell's "My Geraldine," was in the city to-day arranging for the presenation of that play at the Opera house, Wednesday evening, October 26. The name and fame are already well-known here and the entertainment is one which will merit a hearty support.

-One of the most unfortunate places in the world in which to leave a paper bag filled with cating apples is in a printing office, and the lawyer whose absent O. L. ROSENKRANS & CO., minutedness caused min to commit this error, may well congratulate himself on the honesty of the printers in returning error, may well congratulate himself on Janesville friends for a few days, ex-

the bag, although it was empty. -The fashion of putting silk linings in pvercoat pockets is a species of deceit, which got a young man into trouble the other day. With a companion he was looking at some overcoats in a clothing store, and seeing what appeared to be a nice silk handkerchief in the pocket, he winked at his companion, and proceeded to filch it. It wouldn't filch, and he gave himself away badly to the proprietor of the establishment. -Last ovening a small company of the friends of Mrs. Ed. F. Welch captured her home during her absence, and after making due proparations for a good time, sent for her. The surprise was a happy one, and the occasion was very enloyable, the evening being spent pleasantly in chatting, games, and partaking of refreshments. Mrs. Welch has just moved into a new home, and the surprise last night partook somewhat of the nature of a house warming. "Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often?"

"Brother Taylor, the answer is very easy, we used Hop Bitters in time, kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter." -The case of Jerome Shimeal charged vith conspiracy against Elias Holmes, has had the bottom all knocked out of it. Some of the evidence for the presecution was taken yesterday in the Municipal court, and then the action was dismissed. It appears that Shimoal had been missing some property, and hired Tens, whom he supposed was a detectivee, to ferret out the thieves. Shimeal claims that was all he had to do with Teus, and that after." the latter worked on his own responsibility and in his own way, and that he had nothing to do with Tous carrying some of his property over to Holmes house. Teus seems to have been at the bottom of the whole trouble, and this amateur detective has stirred up quite a ittle commotion by his actions.

The further fact sustains the high repu-

"Don't Know Ralf Their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint as recommended. I had a half bottle left, which I used for two little girls who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know helf the is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B., Roches ter, N. Y. See other column.

FULTON.

-Last Monday evening the prohibition pot was fairly set boiling, by a meeting in the Fulton church. Speeches were made by Revs. Teeter, Leavitt, and May.

-There was a concert and literary entertainment in the church last evening given by some ladies and gentlemen from Madison, which was largely enjoyed: Rev. Mr. Eaton read an Irish piece in a creditable manner. Mrs. Fowler read "The isable manuner. Mrs. Fowler read "The healing of Jarius' daughter" very nicely. The quartet "Come where the lillies bloom," by Messrs. Eaton and Rowland, and Mrs. Brandt and Mrs. Fowler was very finely rendered. Also "Call Jahn" by the same quartet afforded much amusement, the hearty laugh of Mr. Eaton being quite contageous.

Eaton being quite consageous.
—Saturday morning between two and three o'clock, during the storm, the two-story brick house of James Hopkins' one mile east of D. Stono's, was struck by the story brick house of the story of the mile east of D. Stone's, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed with its contents. The family was not aware that the house was on fire, until Mr. Hopkins hearing the noise, opened a door and was met by a sheet of flames. We understand there was $3,000 insurance on the house and $4.50 on the approximate.

skind there was $3,000 insurance on the house and $450 on the contents.

—J. S. White and family took in the exposition at Milwaukee this week, and report a fine time.

—James McCracken is putting up a new barn; George Mur win is lowering the roof to his blacksmith shop; John Kramer has just completed a new fence which adds greatly to the apparature of which adds greatly to the appearance of his place.

—Ed Wallin and bride are guests of his mother.

—Nash & Lee have just received a large stock of goods, and are determined not to be undersold by anyone.

—Sunday, October 16, Rev. D. B. Jackson, of Emerald Grove, preached a very fine sermon in the Fulton church in the morning, and the voluntary played by Miss Kate Raymond, was very fine indeed.

—Since Burt Knight gave up the contract it seems difficult to get anyone to carry the mail as the pay is so small.

—Have you sold yet? What did you get? are invariably the questions asked when two farmers meet now-a-days, meaning tobacco, and the answer is in most cases 15 cents.

It is a Foolish Mistake to confound a remedy of merit with the quack medicines now so common. We have used Parker's Ginger Tonic with the happiest results for Rheumatism and dyspepsia, and when worn out by overwork, and know it to be a sterling health restorative.—Times. See adv
